

A Half-Hour with Psalm 106

- A. At the beginning (106:1) and ending (106:48) of Psalm 106 is this cry: "Praise the LORD!" Why?
1. "He is good" (106:1)
 2. "His steadfast love endures forever!" (106:1)
 3. He is a God of indescribably "mighty deeds" (106:2)
 4. He is a fountain of blessing to those who observe justice and do righteousness (106:3)
 5. He is a God who remembers, shows favor to, helps, and saves his people (106:4-5)
- B. The problem? Too often, his people do not honor him as God or give thanks to him (Rom 1:18-23).

The Ugly Laundry List of Psalm 106

- We resist being _____ by his wondrous works and steadfast love (106:6-12)
- We allow our unrestrained cravings to override our willingness to _____ for his counsel (106:13-15)
- We operate from hearts of _____ and selfish ambition (106:16-18)
- We exchange the glory of God for something we can _____ for our own satisfaction (106:19-23)
- We do not believe his promises and therefore refuse to follow his _____ (106:24-27)
- We give ourselves over to _____ of all sorts (106:28-31)
- We grumble and _____ in the face of his faithfulness and wisdom (106:32-33)
- We content ourselves with half-measures and compromised _____ (106:34-39)
- We take his deliverance for _____ and presume on the riches of his grace (106:40-43)

"_____..." (106:44-46)

How will his people respond? (106:47-48; Rom 1:5; 16:26)