

When We Call Ourselves a Church of Christ

- A. When we call ourselves a “church of Christ,” what do we mean by that?
- B. Of utmost importance, what would our heavenly Father have us mean by that?

When we call ourselves a church of Christ...

- We’re using a Biblical _____ (Rom 16:16).
- We’re describing a “called out” group of _____ in a given location (Rom 16:1-5, 23).
- We’re clearly identifying our _____ (Eph 1:15-23).
- We ought to be reminded of the God-breathed call to maintain the _____ of the Spirit in the bond of _____ (Eph 4:1-6).
 - ⇒ One _____ (John 17:20-21)
 - ⇒ One _____ (John 16:12-13)
 - ⇒ One _____ that belongs to your call (2 Thes 2:13-17)
 - ⇒ One _____ (Matt 28:18)
 - ⇒ One _____ (Gal 1:6-12; 1 Cor 1:10)
 - ⇒ One _____ (Matt 28:19-20; 1 Cor 1:11-13)
 - ⇒ One God and _____ of all (Eph 2:11-22)
- We ought to be reminded of God’s design for the _____ of the body (Eph 4:11-16).
- We ought to be reminded of God’s design for local _____ (Acts 20:17-28a).
- We ought to be reminded of our _____ price (Acts 20:28b).
- We are anchoring ourselves to the written _____ of God’s will (1 Tim 3:14-4:1, 6-7, 11, 13, 16; 6:2-4, 10-16, 20-21).