

Tipping Point Questions

May 2nd, 2021

What influences are able to convince us to accept something we do not know or otherwise believe something we would normally question?

What is something that holds me back more than I want to admit?

How does Hebrews 12:1 encourage us to work hard as God's children?

Why should we be encouraged by this?

Do we have a habit of being informed? (Acts 17:11)

If yes to the above, how critically do we evaluate the sources of our information?

Would I have the courage or preparation to approach someone like Phillip? (Acts 8:30)

What do you think was the convincing factor for Ananias to approach Saul? (Acts 9:15)

Do you think having been told this helped him with his trials? (2 Cor. 11:16-30)

A verse that compels me to willingly receive and readily contend for the Gospel:

A new thing am I willing to try this week in the service for the Lord:
